Godwrestling 2014

Leader: Carol Ochs

This year you have HOMEWORK. You will be asked to find the one or two passages from scripture that you have "pondered in your heart" and be prepared to tell how you came to choose that passage and what it has come to mean for you. A careful choice of passage may require a whole life review--and you may find that your "favorite" passage in your twenties is not the one which will accompany you at a later stage. I hope to leave Godwrestling with a whole new list of favorites.

Poetry Circle

Leader: Lynore Banchoff

If you write poetry, read or recite it, you will enjoy our special group this year. Actor, Barbara Babcock will read from Belle of Amherst the one person play about the life of Emily Dickinson. A few of Emily's poems will be offered, and we will go around the circle to listen and talk about what you want to share. Lynore Banchoff. Lynoreb@sbcglobal.net

Womens Group (Crones)

Leader: Sylvia Skaggs McTague

The Womens Group provides all women with a confidential space to share concerns and offer support. Practical advice is a frequent component! Though we are only scheduled for one formal meeting, we hope to find time to meet informally throughout the conference.
