5 Days (4 nights) in Celia Morris' B & B on Capitol Hill, Washington D.C.

NOTE: this will only be available in July, August or the first half of January.

This includes the entire downstairs plus either Celia's bedroom, for one or two people (I'm pretty sure Celia won't be in it) or the back part which is used for a B&B, and would accommodate a couple and a child (or presumably and couple and a small adult)

The home is directly across the street from the Library of Congress (researchers take note!) and 3 blocks from the Capitol, and just up the hill from the Smithsonian Museums and the Mall.
